Dandelion Readers and Dandelion Catch-Up Readers Seminar

Are you from a school or library that is collecting the Dandelion Phonic Books and Dandelion Phonic Catch-up Reader series, or have you been considering starting a collection?

This seminar for teachers, SSOs, parents or librarians will explore the story of how the books came about, the difficulties Wendy has had with dyslexia, her career in the field of Special Needs, and the policy behind the Dandelion Readers and Dandelion Catch-Up Readers. She will also outline the core values behind a phonic approach, how to use the readers, why phonic books are so important, tips and tricks of how to help struggling readers blend sounds and what is coming next from Phonic Books UK Publishing.

The entire series will be available to look at and purchase on the day with a 5% discount.

This workshop is suitable for teachers, SSOs, tutors, fulltime uni students, librarians and parents
